

Answers to short Questions

13. The authors (Farmers) wanted to make sure that one branch could not control another branch. An example of what might happen is our rights and freedom might be taken. We would not be protected.

14. One reason is it would be difficult to travel between states.

Second reason is the government couldn't control or tax money if every state is different.

15. It is important so citizens have individual rights (like to vote) and freedom.

- offer security & justice.

- Right to life, liberty, and property.

16. 1. Bill is introduced as an idea.

2. House & Senate vote to approve the bill.

3. Governor/^{president} signs the bill/or not

4. vetoed - 2/3 vote for reform