Heba Jarro and Pioneer Sugar

My Michigan Made Product

At the age of three his family moved to Lenawee Co, Michigan, his mother and seven children had to fend for themselves. At age 17 Robert entered Oberlin

College. He taught school in 1851 he received the degree of MD from the University of Michigan. He served with the 12th Michigan

Infantry during the civil war, and later a professor of chemistry at the Michigan Agricultural College and in 1902 he became professor emeritus there. He was one of the original members of the Michigan State board of health and was its president for four years.
In 1898 he was elected president of the association of official agricultural chemists.
