

Room 55 Classroom Expectations: Explore Language

Señora Jedrzejowski

(Yen-jay-ov-ski)

Spanish, German, French, Arabic, and American Sign Language are explored at the middle school level and offered as academic electives beginning at the high school level. At middle school, this program is designed to introduce the everyday skills of listening, speaking, viewing, reading, and writing in a foreign language to learners at the novice level. In addition, students are involved in cultural overlay activities that extend to other content areas.

Class Expectations: Be Prompt, Prepared, Productive, & Polite

Procedures:

1. Students will be in their assigned seats and prepared to work on time. You must begin your bell work as soon as you sit down. Students may not come to class and ask for a pass to go to the restroom or leave for a drink. Students are expected to make restroom and drink visits during the passing times provided.
2. Students will bring the following items daily (no exceptions):
 1. Language Packet (provided in class or can be printed from the iBlog)
 2. Folder with lined paper
 3. Planner & photo ID
 4. Pencil
 5. Red pen
 6. 2 Thin dry erase EXPO markers
3. Students will raise their hands to speak or to leave their seats.
4. Pencils will be sharpened before class or raise your hand to do so. Hold on to waste papers until the teacher is done with whole group instruction. A recycle bin is also provided by the door. Make sure papers are not crumpled up so that more papers can be recycled.
5. When being dismissed, I will dismiss you. (The clock does not dismiss you).
6. Eating, drinking liquids other than water, and chewing gum are prohibited during class.
7. Assignments are to be submitted on time. Late assignments will drop 20% and will only be accepted at the halfway point of the marking period.
8. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to get any assignments missed the day you return to school.
9. There will be NO talking during tests or quizzes so that everyone will have an opportunity to do their best.
10. If a test is missed and needs to be made up, you will be expected to make arrangements to do so before or after school. If a test is not taken within a week, a zero will result.
11. Follow the Student Code of Conduct. Cell phones or electronic devices are permitted to be used only for educational purposes. If you have items from another class, they must be placed on the ground.
