

This movie is rated PG-13 and requires a parent's signature to view. We will be watching this mainly for the tornado formation scenes and the drama that unfolds for the tornado chasers.

In the heartland of America, the sky is a majestic wonder as it rises infinitely above the vast, level horizon. Cloud formations gracefully soar and scuttle across the endlessness of blue. Gentle spring breezes whisper across the plains. All elements blend together in a delicate choreography of elegant balance and awesome design. But the sky sometimes changes.
