

Dearborn Public Schools, City of Dearborn & the Dearborn Community are starting a CHAIN REACTION against bullying behavior with the 2nd annual

Anti-Bullying Extravaganza

Monday, October 1, 2012
(October is National Anti-Bullying Month)
6:00 p.m. at Ford Performing Arts Center

Everyone is Welcome!

*Children, parents, teachers, secretaries, principals, clergy, dignitaries, politicians, community organization members, council people, school board trustees, business leaders, bus drivers, support staff, city department heads & staff,
. . . the entire community!!*

Join us for a Variety Show!

Words of Inspiration from Superintendent Brian Whiston & Mayor Jack O'Reilly

Music, singing, dancing & tons of fun, so be sure to wear your dancing shoes!
- Student-made Videos - Poster contest winner "Upstander Man" t-shirt sale - Light afterglow provided by Dearborn Schools' PTSA - Stay tuned...more to come!

Questions? Contact Jacqui Rivait - rivaitj@dearborn.k12.mi.us

If you want to be part of our CHAIN REACTION please sign the enclosed strip of paper and bring it with you to the Ford Performing Arts Center on October 1, 2012 at 6:00 p.m.
Enclosed are two additional strips of Chain paper so you can bring your friends!!