

Leaders WRITE Now!

Whitmore-Bolles Elementary School—January Writing Contest

Writing Contest Theme: Being a Leader

Our school is a Leader in Me school where we teach and use the 7 Habits throughout our day. We invite students to write a personal narrative, poem, or essay related to them being a leader.

Writing Contest Rules

- Students in the Kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, or 5th grade may enter.
- Submit one piece of writing: essay, poem, or narrative
- Illustrations may be included
- 500-word limit
- Writing must be original
- Neat and legible handwriting or student-typed entries only
- Include a title
- Do not put the student's name on the entry. A second sheet must be submitted with the following information:
Name , Grade Level, Teacher's Name
Title of Contest Entry

Awards will be given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners for each of the grades along with one grand prize winner. Students who win an award will be invited to read their entries at the March 8th Leadership Day.

Due Date: Tuesday, January 31st

Late entries cannot be accepted.

Winners will be notified by February 10th.

Mail paper entries to: Leaders WRITE Now! Contest Entry Box in the Main Office