When a Child is Stuck:
Questions to Ask

1. Does it make sense?
   Reread - Check Picture

2. Does it sound right?
   Reread - Listen

3. Does it look right?
   Reread - Sound first letter

4. Do you know a word like that?
   Check it - Are you right?
Helping Children Read

How?

• Sit beside the child.

• Be sure you can see the words.

• Let the child handle the book.

• Encourage pointing when appropriate; eliminate pointing when not needed.

• Support reading only when needed; let the child figure out new words.

• Don't correct too much.

• Praise both good tries and accurate reading.