

Pages 825-830(continued)

11. Restate lines 100-118 in one summary statement.
12. What does Cassius infer when he compares Caesar to "old Anchises"?
13. What amazes Cassius?
14. What does Cassius mean when he compares Caesar to the Colossus?
15. Cassius says, "The fault, dear Brutus, is not in our stars, But in ourselves, that we are underlings"(829). What does the text say? Mean?
16. Why does Cassius compare the names "Brutus" and "Caesar"?
17. Why does Cassius remind Brutus of his ancestor Lucius Junius Brutus?
18. What lines suggest that Brutus knows of Cassius's plot?
19. How will Brutus respond to Cassius's appeal?
20. What would Brutus prefer over the "hard conditions" that are likely to occur?