

104-108

---

Continuation for "Two Friends" (102-104)

11. What offer does the German officer make to Morissot and Sauvage?
12. Why might both men be tempted to go along with the officer's offer?
13. What does their refusal show the reader? Make an inference.
14. What command does the officer make after the men refuse?
15. How does the officer attempt to break the bond between the men?
16. Does the German officer succeed in breaking the bond? Explain.
17. As the soldiers raise their rifles, what does Morissot notice?
18. What might Morissot be thinking or feeling? Make an inference.
19. What does each man say to each other before dying?
20. What happens to Morissot and Sauvage after being shot? Compare their fate to the fish who are fried alive. What is the author inferring?