ABOUT me

This is my 12th year as a teacher & my 5th year at Smith! I have a bachelor degree with a double major in science and math from UFM. I am graduating this year with my masters degree in Mathematics Leadership. I live in Dearborn with my husband Michael. I enjoy traveling and spending time with my friends and family!

Google classroom and my IBLOG at <http://iblog.dearbornschools.org/savagea> are the 2 important sites you are responsible to check continuously in order to stay up to date and be successful in science this school year.
