E-MAIL / SPELLING EXPRESSIONS

The present tense of the verb ser

1 In Spanish, a verb has different forms to tell you who the subject is. Changing a verb form so that it matches its subject is called conjugating. This is the conjugation of the verb ser (to be).

yo soy	I am	nosotros(as) somos	we are tú eres	you are	vosotros(as) sois	you are usted es	you are	ustedes son	you are él es	he is	ellos son	they are ella es	she is	ellas son	they are

With nouns and names of people, use the same form of the verb as for él/ella or ellos/ellas.

Mi profesora es de Cuba. Juan y Carlos son de España.
My teacher is from Cuba. Juan and Carlos are from Spain.

2 To make a sentence negative, place no in front of the verb.

Mi profesora no es de México. Es de España.
My teacher isn't from Mexico. She's from Spain.

PUNCTUATION MARKS & ACCENTS

Punctuation marks and written accents

1 In Spanish, upside-down punctuation marks such as (¿) and (¡) are placed at the beginning of a phrase to signal a question or an exclamation. These are used along with those that come at the end of phrases.

¡Hasta luego!
¿Cómo se llama ella?

2 In Spanish, some words have written accent marks. An accent mark is a tilted line (') placed over a vowel. Putting accent marks over vowels is part of spelling words correctly. When learning new words, memorize where the accent marks are.

Adiós.
¿Cuál?

3 The wavy line in the letter ñ is called a tilde. The ñ is pronounced similarly to the ny in the word canyon.

señor
compañero
