

Human Geography Study Guide

reunions	less waste	freedom	noise	people
port of entry	natural resources	navigation system
big dipper	adapting	 automotive	geography
industry

1. Having a sod house is _____ to the environment.
2. People living near an airport might complain about _____ pollution.
3. Wanting _____ is a push factor for immigration.
4. To stay close, many Potowatomi go to tribal _____.
5. Many people came to Highland Park in the 1900s to work in the _____ industry.
6. A recycling project will impact the environment by creating _____.
7. Traveling in a car you would use a _____.
8. In New York, people speak a lot of languages because it is a _____ to the United States.
9. _____ cause the most pollution.
10. Follow the Drinking Gourd means to use the _____ as a guide to freedom.
11. The materials used to make houses are based on the _____ and _____ available.
12. Another word for a factory is an _____.

13. What questions would a geographer ask?
14. Why would an area of New York be called "Little Italy?"
15. What are some reasons people would want to leave a country?
16. What are some reasons people would want to come to the United States?
17. Name a person in the Underground Railroad and tell what they did.
18. Tell a push and pull factor that caused people to use the Underground Railroad.
19. Why was Michigan a stop on the Underground Railroad?