

Pronouns

Directions: Circle the correct pronoun in each sentence.

56. My best friend and (her, she) have always liked to cook better than (I, me).
57. For (whom, who) is this dish being dedicated, (he or I, him or me)?
58. My husband and (I, me) are allowed to bring (whoever, whomever) we like better to the restaurant.
59. My husband hopes to bring Carly Beth and (I, me) to prove that the 5 star restaurants are worth (his, our) time.
60. I don't really care what (she, her) likes to eat, but (we, us) may eat enough for three people.