

People are performing music together online.

- Some people are singing together online. One choir director started The Sofa Singers.
- People around the world are sitting on their couches and singing together on video calls.
- Musicians are playing their musical instruments together too!
- They are creating concerts for people to watch at home.

People Singing Together Online

What is your favorite kind of music? Why?