

extension activity

Special Olympics helps people with special needs play sports!

Special Olympics Athletes

- Special Olympics is a group that teaches people about sports.
- The group has sports contests like the Olympics for kids and adults with special needs.
- Special Olympics believes everyone can play sports!
- The group helps people stay healthy, make friends and try their best.

What is your favorite sport? Why?