

PROTESTS IN MINNESOTA

People Protesting Peacefully

People are protesting in Minneapolis, Minnesota, because they are angry. Police officers arrested an African American man named George Floyd on May 25 in Minneapolis. Videos show a white police officer hurting George. George then died. The officers who arrested George were fired, but many people think all the officers should be arrested. Many people in Minneapolis are protesting in the streets. Some people are protesting peacefully, but some people there are burning buildings. Many people are angry and now people in other U.S. cities are protesting too. Leaders in Minnesota say they are investigating what happened. They are learning about what the police officers did and why George died. The FBI is investigating too.

Photo Credit: AP Photo/David Zalubowski

WHAT

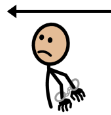

PROTESTS IN MINNESOTA

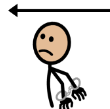

People are protesting in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Police officers arrested an African American man there.

They arrested George Floyd on May 25.

25

Videos show a white police officer hurting George.

George died.

The police officers were fired.

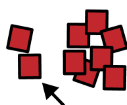

Many people think the police officers should be arrested.

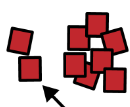

Many people in Minneapolis are protesting in the streets.

Some people are protesting peacefully.

Some people there are burning buildings.

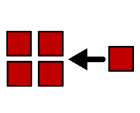

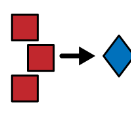

Many people are angry.

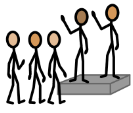

=

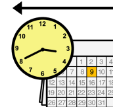

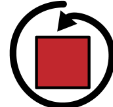

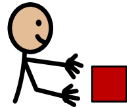

Now people in other cities are protesting too.

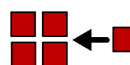

Leaders in Minneapolis say they are investigating.

They want to learn about what happened.

The FBI is investigating too.

1. WHAT are people doing in Minneapolis ?

protesting voting

swimming

2. WHO arrested George Floyd ?

nurses

police officers

firefighters

3. WHERE did police officers arrest
George Floyd ?

Stowe, Vermont

Reno,
Nevada

Minneapolis,
Minnesota

