

due Tuesday 12-17-19

~~11/15~~

Study Guide

All Summer In A Day/ Pyramid of Action

Comprehension:

- ↓
- What is the setting of the story- be as specific as possible.

Venus, underground school, 24/7 rain for 7 yrs, lots of vegetation

- In what ways is Margot very different from the other children on Venus? Explain-

- Born on Earth - lived there in Ohio until she was 4 yrs old
- She has seen/remembers sun
- Being bullied
- shy
- withdrawn
- depressed

- Why are the children on Venus so interested in what is happening outside that day? Explain-

The scientists say it will stop raining and sun will come out for 1 hour - 1st time in 7yrs.

- How does the weather on Venus affect Margot?

She is depressed - she is struggling emotionally, mentally, physically

- Explain how the children in the story treat Margot badly. Give examples from the text.

- They call her a liar and are rude
- locked in a closet
- shoving/pushing her
- not listening
- exclude her

- When the children come in from the rain, why are they ashamed?

- They forgot her in the closet and took away her only chance to see the sun. Robbed her of something

- How do you know they were ashamed? Explain their body language in the text.

she NEEDED

- they could not move
- they would not look at each other
- they looked down

- How do you know this is a science fiction story?

- The narrative took place on Venus (another planet)
- The story talked about space travel for regular people.

- Do you think seeing the sun will change the children from Venus in a positive or negative way? Explain-

(+)

(-)

also

- They might become depressed because they miss the sun

- They will be kinder to Margot
- They will appreciate the sun
- They will be more open-minded

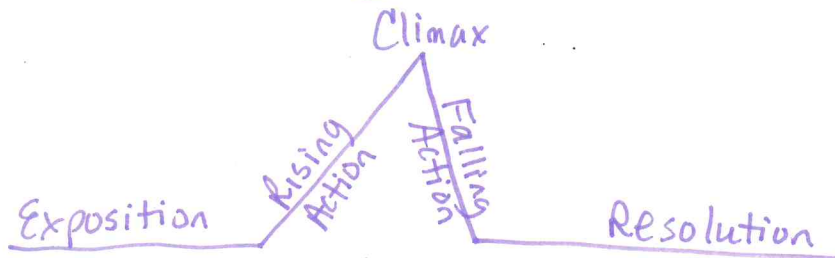

Selection Vocabulary: use definitions on Flashcards

Know the definitions of the following words-

- Savor to take great pleasure in -
- Tumultuously in a wild or disorderly way
- Apparatus a device or set of equipment used for a specific purpose
- Slacken to slow down or lessen
- Resilient flexible or springy
- Immense extremely big/huge

Pyramid of Action:

Draw the Pyramid of Action Below AND Label each part (see the part names in the chart below)

In your own words, describe what happens in each section of pyramid plot line:

Exposition	Rising Action	Climax
Falling Action	Resolution

from notes/flashcards

see last pages attached (notes) POA

* highlight proof or clues

Name: _____

Types of Conflict Worksheet 1

#3

Directions: Read the description of the story. Determine the type of conflict (example: Character vs. nature).

1. After breaking his mother's favorite vase, Casey struggles to decide whether he should tell his mother the truth and face the consequences, or whether he should attempt to hide his mistake and blame the family dog.

Type of Conflict

C vs. Self

2. Kiko is a ninja warrior trained by Mountain Master Yoho Mahrati. When Master Mahrati is slain by Shan Bhutan of the Lotus Clan in the most cowardly of fashions, Kiko lays it all on the line to avenge the death of his master. Will Kiko overcome Shan Bhutan and the powerful Lotus Clan?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Character

3. It's the year 3030 and society is completely dependent on computers and robots. A young boy named Domino is flying his hover board to school when all of the machines start acting up and attacking people due to a powerful computer virus. What will Domino do now that the machines that are supposed to help him have turned against him?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Technology

4. Brian has the best dog in the world. In fact, he has one of the only dogs in the world. That's because dogs are not allowed in Brian's world, where people believe that dogs spread diseases. Brian's dog will be executed if he is caught. Soon Brian learns of a mysterious underground dog owners club and joins the fight to legalize dogs. Can Brian and his new friends prove to the world that dogs are safe and friendly?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Society

5. Janie is on a whitewater-rafting trip along a choppy river when their guide suddenly has a heart attack. Now she and the other passengers must learn to work together to survive the treacherous rapids. As if things weren't bad enough, some of the passengers spotted a bear following the confused rafters along the shore. Will Janie make it home safely?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Nature

6. Kirstin was once teased for being heavy, but then she lost a lot of weight. Now Kirstin is very skinny, but there is just one problem: she still sees an overweight girl when she looks in the mirror.

continued...

Her friends and family try to convince her of how beautiful she is, but she doesn't believe them. Worse still, she is continuing to diet. Will Kirstin be able to align her body image with reality or will she destroy herself?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Self

7. Greg is just a regular boy who tries to do his best in school and just so happens to have a magical unicorn. When he's not studying and playing baseball, Greg is riding his unicorn through the enchanted land of Harmonia. When Greg brings something to Harmonia that he shouldn't, a secret gate is unlocked and the muck-muck monsters are unleashed, causing terrible pollution in Harmonia. Can Greg and his unicorn stop the muck-muck monsters before they find a way to Greg's world?

Type of Conflict

C vs. Character

(or)

C. vs. Society

8. Everything was going just fine for Mae until yesterday. That was when she found out that her eyes were turning green. In Mae's world people discriminate against those with green eyes. Green-eyed people cannot vote or hold public office and they are often forced to work the worst jobs for the least pay, if they can even find a job. Mae parents want her to have surgery to change her eye color, but her grandma, who also has green eyes, encourages her to fight for her rights. With her grandma behind her, Mae joins a resistance movement and becomes the poster child for green-eyed rights, but how will all of this attention affect Mae's family, especially her parents who wanted her to hide who she was?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Society

9. Jack Juniper is the best fighter pilot in the Air Force. He can take down an enemy jet while doing a barrel roll. One day while Jack is escorting some friendly pilots to a military base, something that Jack has never seen before attacks the convoy... aliens! Can Jack outmaneuver the highly skilled alien pilots or is the mission doomed to failure?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Character

10. Ronny has won second place in the science fair for the last two years, and Newton Robinson has taken first. Ronny hated how Newton gloated and held these victories high over Ronny's head. This year, Ronny will stop at nothing to beat Newton. He has even enlisted the help of a Nobel Prize nominated scientist who was banished from the scientific community for his rouge experiments. Can Ronny and his mad scientist partner win against the undefeated Newton at this year's science fair?

Type of Conflict

C. vs. Character

The Pyramid of Action

(P.O.A.)

Exposition:

What happens at the beginning of the story. Characters and setting are introduced. The “situation” of the story is introduced.

Rising Action:

The rising action in a story begins showing/explaining the problem(s) in the story. We begin to understand details about the characters & setting.

Climax:

The turning point of the story. It is the most exciting part!

Falling Action:

The falling action in a story happens after the climax is revealed. The plot begins to bring the story to a close. Hanging questions are starting to be answered- the puzzle pieces are almost complete....

Resolution (Denouement) :

The ending of the story. The problem(s) are resolved. The theme (lesson) is revealed. Everything is “wrapped up”.

Conflict- Red Words

1. Internal Conflict- problems that take place in the mind of a character.
2. External Conflict- problems from the outside world a character must deal with.
3. Character VS Character- conflict that involves a struggle between 2 (or more) characters.
4. Character VS Society- conflict that involves characters struggling with BIG social issues (prejudice, war, racism, poverty, etc.).
5. Character VS Nature- conflict that involves characters struggling with some natural force (tornadoes, hurricanes, floods, blizzards, etc).
6. Character VS Self- conflict that is in the mind and heart of a character.
7. Character VS Technology- conflict that involves characters struggling with some type of technology (computer, cell phone, viruses, etc.).