

THE MONKEY'S PAW

COPY MASTER

Text AnalysisMOOD

Mood is the feeling or atmosphere the writer creates for the reader. Writers create mood through

- the choice of setting, including time and place
- imagery—words and phrases that appeal to the reader's senses
- conversations between characters

Directions: In the chart, describe the mood of “The Monkey’s Paw” and give examples of the setting descriptions, conversations, and imagery that helped create the mood.

Mood:
Setting Descriptions	Conversations	Imagery