

"Flowers for Algernon" essay will have two parts:

1) the essay itself taking the form that you choose in response to the question "Should Charlie Gordon have undergone the operation to improve his intelligence?"

2) another form that illustrates your response to the prompt, such as but not limited to:

a. your own journal

b. a play

c. a poem

d. an illustration

e. a song

f. retelling the narrative with you as a character.

(Forms not listed here need prior approval. Presentations are given in class.)