Manea Yahya scored 18 points Friday night to lead Edsel Ford to a 50-46 victory over visiting Fordson.

SOME OF MY GREATEST ACHIEVEMENTS:

- I'm proud of graduating college and becoming a teacher so that I can give back to my community and make a difference in the lives of our youth.
- Working hard and putting myself in a position to play basketball for Henry Ford Community College or UofM-Dearborn.

One of my favorite childhood memories is:

- One of my favorite childhood memories is the time my friends and I won a huge basketball tournament against older kids from in and out of our community. From that moment on, my confidence and reputation in regards to basketball continued to grow. I was motivated to continue working on my craft and striving to always be the best player on the court.

Some of My talents include:

- Playing/knowledge of basketball
- Sports Video Games
- Motivating/Mentoring/Coaching Youth

SOME WEAKNESSES THAT I HOPE TO STRENGTHEN ARE:

- Improving my public speaking
- Procrastinating

SHORT-TERM GOALS

- Improving my lesson planning
- Memorizing all my students' names
- Winning our 5v5 game vs Mr. Ozeir and his team of students
- Coaching our Woodworth J.V. basketball team to become city champs

INFORMATION ABOUT MY FAMILY:

- 4 brothers and 1 sister
- One of my brothers is a Dental Hygienist and one is studying to become an electrical engineer
- My sister is working to become a Computer Engineer.

SOMEONE THAT I ADMIRE IS MY MOTHER BECAUSE:

- She is very selfless; she puts the needs of others ahead of her own needs.
- She motivates me to be a positive role model for the youth.
- She criticizes and advises me whenever I do something wrong.

IMPORTANT LIFE LESSONS THAT I HAVE LEARNED INCLUDE:

- Be good to people and be sincere in your actions, and good will come to you
- Surround yourself around positive people
- Reflect on and appreciate all your blessings and the people trying to help you grow as a person
